In response to the Final Office Action dated April 8, 2003 (hereinafter referred to as Final Office Action), applicants request that the Examiner reconsider the application in view of the Remarks that follow.

REMARKS

Claims 1-29 remain pending in the present application. No amendment has been made to the claims or the specification.

Summary of Telephone Interview

A telephone interview was held on May 27, 2003 between the Examiner and applicants' attorney to clarify portions of a document entitled "PowerCast Delivery," which was previously submitted as evidence of conception and reduction to practice of the claimed invention prior to the effective date of a reference by Rutledge et al. ("Special Edition: Using Microsoft Powerpoint 2000," March 1, 1999, McMillan Computer Publishing, Chapter 17, hereinafter referred to as "Rutledge") that was cited in a previous Office Action. Applicants' attorney noted that the PowerCast Delivery document included a Figure 1 showing an active stream format (ASF) data stream being archived, and noted that pages 13 and 14 described the archiving process. Applicants' attorney also noted that a Figure 5 and page 5 of the PowerCast Delivery document provided details regarding the content of the ASF stream. The Examiner acknowledged discussing the noted portions of the PowerCast Delivery document with the Examiner's Primary Examiner and indicated that the noted portions appeared to provide support
